It is my privilege to invite you to the International Pink Dental Congress 2025 (IPDCON2025), taking place from March 7th to 9th, 2025, in celebration of International Women's Day.

Organized in collaboration with MedSkill and the National Health Academy, this prestigious event embraces the theme, "Celebrating Women in Dentistry and Beyond". IPDCON2025 will honor the remarkable achievements of women in dentistry while providing an enriching platform for knowledge exchange, professional growth, and inspiration.

This congress will feature an exceptional lineup of national and international speakers, engaging scientific sessions, interactive workshops, panel discussions, and invaluable networking opportunities, fostering collaboration and empowerment within the dental community.

At MedSkill and the National Health Academy, we are committed to delivering the highest standards of education and engagement, ensuring that IPDCON2025 is an unmissable experience for dental professionals, educators, researchers, and students alike.

Join us as we celebrate excellence in dentistry, empower one another, and shape a more inclusive and progressive future. Save the date – March 7th to 9th, 2025.

We look forward to welcoming you!
